Come here, pull me in your arms and hold me
Bring chimeras from my dreams
And now's the perfect time to tell you
My love is backwards, feeling from the inside

Never ever ever ever fly away
Never ever ever ever live to say "I-"

Reverse everything
Reverse everything
Reverse me
Ah!

Tearing everything
Out
Of ordinary
Throwing everything
Around
The corners of the earth
Screaming at each
Other
People don't know these feelings from the inside

Reverse everything around me
Inverse everything inside me

Well, this is love after all!

Reverse everything
Reverse everything
